

Annex II - The Narrative Résumé Template

This document is mandatory for the Lead PI and co-PIs only. Please use the five sections described below, omitting the corresponding explanations

The narrative résumé is designed to allow you to make visible all the relevant contributions you have made to the research community. This document should occupy at most five pages per PI. If a résumé contains more than five pages, only the first five will be considered. For sections in which you do not desire to provide information, write “Not applicable” under the corresponding Section title. There is no word limit for each section—you may choose to devote more space to certain sections depending on the nature of your past contributions and experience.

Section 1 - Personal and Career Information

Please indicate the following:

- Key qualifications
- Relevant positions held (list up to 5)
- Awards or prizes
- Any other experience directly relevant to the proposed research project

Section 2 – Independent contributions to the generation of new ideas, tools, methodologies or knowledge:

List up to 5 of the most relevant research results, such as scientific articles, books, book chapters, videos, sound recordings, creative outputs, lectures as guest speakers, patents (filed, granted, and especially licensed), registered software, cultivars, new products, new processes or other types of documented results arisen from research that you consider to be among the 5 most relevant to your career.

Section 3 – Human Capacity Development:

The development or supervision of others and maintenance of effective working relationships. You can list up to five examples indicating the connection between these examples and the proposed research project.

Section 4 – Scientific Impact:

Contributions to the wider research community. You can list up to five examples of various activities you have engaged in to progress the research community, such as editing, reviewing, refereeing, committee work, your contributions to increasing research integrity and improving research culture.

Section 5 – Societal Impact:

Contributions towards wider social benefit/impact which may include collaboration with communities, partners’ organizations or practitioners (‘research-users’).

Section 6 – Additions: Provide any further details relevant to your application (such as career breaks).
